Growing God's Mission

In person: Good Shepherd Lutheran Church

Let's explore and embrace the creative ways of ministry that are opening before us.

We are a community of congregations who love God, who care deeply about things that matter and who are called to serve people with compassion and justice. What a great time to be church!

Our gathering will send us out inspired and hopeful for the path, mission and ministry ahead!

Everyone is welcome!

Many congregations are already in conversation about redevelopment or the possible sale of their buildings—discussions that require care, creativity, and courage. Our guest consultant, Katja Brittain, brings deep experience in guiding congregations through this kind of discernment. She will lead us in a morning of conversation and reflection as we explore the possibilities, sustainability, and faithful stewardship of our church buildings and properties.
